

WOMEN'S MARCH

—ON NEW YORK CITY—

UWS JEWISH CONTINGENT

We are Jews on the Upper West Side determined to join our voices to those of the larger community in the Women's March on New York City. We are peacefully marching to promote the protection of our civil rights and dignity regardless of gender, race, religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation or disability.

Saturday, January 21

Shabbat Parashat Shemot

11:00 AM:

Meet at: B'nai Jeshurun, 257 W. 88th St., NYC
Speakers: Rabbi Joanna Samuels • Rabbi Shai Held

12:00 noon-1:30 PM:

March to Trump Tower

March route:

Leaving from 88th St. and Broadway and going south on Broadway to Lincoln Center where Ninth Ave. intersects Broadway; continuing south on Ninth Ave. to 52nd St.; turning east on 52nd St. to Fifth Ave., where we will join the main march and walk north to 55th St. near Trump Tower.

JOIN US AND LET YOUR VOICE BE HEARD!
